New Ceramic Technique Classes

Greenware Leather Carving October 4 & 11, $8

Vickie Wright & Wilma Barnes have been trained in a new technique called Greenware Leather Carving. They will be your instructors for the class. There are 3-4 patterns to choose from. After carving and cleaning the piece, it is fired at a low temperature, then painted, glazed, and re-fired. If you don't want to use cover Coats, then you can stain the piece and fire it. The class is limited to 6 people; includes Greenware, the use of tools, paints, patterns and firing. Class time 10-12.

October 8 & 9, 10:00
$20 to $40 + cost of Greenware

Guest Instructor Marchelle Burnham, owner of Back Door Ceramics from Adrian, Oregon, will be our instructor for these special classes. Hostess will be Vickie Wright. Class time begins at 10:00 a.m. both days.

Friday's class—the 8th—will be airbrushing a scene on a platter, plate or flat faced vase. The cost of this class is $20 + greenware. The greenware will need to be fired before the day of the class.

Saturday's class—the 9th—will be on Raku, a unique technique where heavy metals are combined with glazes, and fired at high temperatures, then smoked in a garbage can. Raku is a fun technique with bright colors as well as the metallic look. The cost of this class is $40 and includes 2 pieces.

In the Mood—Big Band Musical
Review

In the Mood presents a retro 1940's musical featuring the In the Mood Singers and Dancers with the sensational String of Pearls Big Band Orchestra.

In the 1940s, the combination of up-tempo big band instrumentals and the intimate romantic ballads set the mood for a future filled with promise, hope and prosperity. This was the time when the music moved the nation's spirit!

The music and the arrangements presented by In the Mood are as authentic as it gets! This was the time when all of America was listening and dancing to the same kind of music—relive that experience by joining us on this concert. Billed as a Red Hat trip, anyone is invited to join us for this fun afternoon out.
